- (vi) He /she shall not write anything on the blotting paper or in other paper or materials during the examination, or pass any kind of paper to any other candidate in the examination-room, or to any person outside the room.
- (vii) He/she shall not disclose his/her identity to the examiner by writing his/her name or putting any symbol in any part of his answer-script.
- (viii) He /she shall not use any abusive language or write any objectionable remark or make any appeal to examiner by writing in any part of his answer-script.
- (ix) He /she shall not detach any page from the answer-script or insert any loose sheet into it.
- (x) He /she shall not insert any new answer-script by removing the pins of the origin answer-scripts and reaffixing them.
- (xi) He /she shall not resort to any disorderly conduct inside the examination-room or misbehave with the invigilator or threaten him.
- (xii) He /she shall not do anything which is contrary to instructions and rules relating to examination.

30. Penalty for contravention:

Contravention of any of the instructions specified above [Article 29] by any candidate shall render him/her liable to be expelled from the examination without prejudice to any other actions that may be taken against him under the rules of the University.

31. Attendance Sheet and Absentee Card Statement:

There shall be an attendance-sheet with the particulars of the candidates allotted to a centre. The invigilator shall verify the admit card and the registration number and obtain in the attendance-sheet the signature of each candidate appearing in the examination. Those who are absent shall be marked absent in the attendance-sheet and the invigilator shall sign the attendance-sheet. From the particulars in the attendance-sheet, an absentee statement shall also be prepared.

32. Duties of the Invigilators:

- (i) It is the cardinal duty of the invigilator to see that no unfair means is adopted by the candidates, and that no instructions specified in Article 28 are violated.
- (ii) The Invigilators shall remain present in the examination-room during the examination and go around the room every now and then.
- (iii) He/she shall see that no candidate talks to any other candidate or to any other person.
- (iv) In course of examination if any candidate has to go out for a brief duration to attend the call of nature the invigilator shall record the temporary absence and the duration thereof in a temporary absentee-sheet and keep him/her under observation.

- In case of delay beyond the three minutes on the part of the candidate to return to the examination-room, the invigilator shall bring the matter to the notice of the Officer in-Charge for necessary action.
- (v) If the invigilator finds any candidate using unfair means, then he shall take the candidate with the relevant papers and incriminating materials to the Officer in-Charge for necessary action. The Officer in-Charge shall forthwith take action, and if he decides to expel the candidate, he shall obtain from the candidate a statement in the prescribed form and two witness shall sign it.
- (vi) (a) If any invigilator does not attend at the time fixed for him/her or leaves the examination-premises earlier than the prescribed time or connives at the unfair means adopted by any candidate or otherwise fails in his duties, then the Officer in-charge may take immediate action against him and may, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him/her debar him from future appointment as invigilator.
- (b) The Officer in-Charge shall as a precautionary measure, engage the invigilators for each room by rotation.
- (c) He shall also personally go round the examination rooms to ensure that proper invigilation is being done.
- (vii) It shall be the duty of the invigilators to distribute the blank answer-scripts and the question-papers to the candidates at the prescribed hours.
- (viii) Fifteen minutes after the distribution of question-papers, the invigilator shall, after verifying the number of question papers with the number of candidates actually present in the room, hand over the surplus question-papers to the Officer in-Charge, who will keep them in his custody till examinations are over. The Officer in-Charge shall then render the University authorities an account of number of question-papers received, the number distributed, and the balance remaining.
- (ix) The invigilator shall keep record of the answer-scripts distributed to the candidates.
- (x) If an additional sheet is supplied to any candidate, the invigilator shall obtain the signature of the candidate in a separate sheet.
- (xi) At the end of every session, he shall show in a statement clearly how many answer-scripts were received by him, how many were distributed to the candidates and how many additional sheets were supplied to candidates, and compare the figures with the attendance-sheet.
- (xii) When the period of the session is over, he shall collect all the answer-scripts immediately and shall ensure that no candidate leaves the answer-scripts on the desk or leaves the room without submitting the answer-script even if it is blank.
- Any candidate leaving his answer-scripts on the desk shall himself/herself be responsible for the loss of his script, if it is not traceable afterwards.
- (xiii) If, despite all precautions taken by the invigilator, the answer-script of any candidate is not handed over to him, he shall record the fact in the roll-sheet and in the statement of answer-scripts and also report it to Officer-in-Charge who shall in turn bring it to the notice of the University.
- (xiv) The invigilator shall arrange the answer-scripts serially, subject-wise and group wise.
- (xv) The invigilator shall, after ensuring proper serialisation, submit the scripts to the Officer-in-Charge.

33. Answer-scripts to be arranged serially:
The Officer-in-Charge shall at the end of each examination-session see that all the answer-scripts are arranged serially, subject-wise and group-wise.
34. Answer-scripts to securely pack:
The Officer-in-Charge shall get the answer-scripts securely packed and sealed in packets of not more than 100, and verify the top-sheet and sign it and paste it on the packet.
35. Answer-scripts to be despatched in the same day:
- (i) The Officer-in-Charge shall despatch the sealed packets to the Controller of Examinations on the same day by the first available transport with all the precaution about safety, security and secrecy.
  - (ii) If, in any special case, he cannot despatch them on the same day for reasons which must be explained to the Controller of Examinations, he/she shall keep the packets properly sealed overnight in safe custody either in the local Treasury or in the Police Station and obtain a receipt and despatch them the next day by first available transport.
  - (iii) Non-compliance of (ii) may lead to the cancellation of the examination centre for such period as may be decided by the Examination Committee, under report to the Governing body.
36. Other papers which are to be sent to the University:
The Officer in-Charge shall also despatch to the Controller of Examinations in a separate cover the attendance sheet, the absentee statement, and the statement of answer-scripts, the seat plan, the records about any expulsion or other disciplinary actions, the unused answer-scripts and surplus question-papers and all other connected records
37. Action in the examination:
On receipt of the answer-scripts from various examination centres, the Controller of Examinations or the Officer authorised by him shall satisfy Branch of the himself that the seals and the packing of the packets are in order and University shall also verify the number of scripts with the statement sent by the Officer in-Charge.
38. Arrangement of scripts:
The Controller of Examinations or Officer authorised by him/her shall get the scripts again re-arranged serially for all the centres taken together according to the roll-numbers, and send them to the examiners as per the list of examiners approved by the Vice Chancellor.
39. Appointment of Examiners and Head Examiners:
- (i) The Controller of Examinations or authorised officer shall every year call for a list of teachers from every constituent colleges and every Head of the Department of the University. The list shall contain information about the length of service of each teacher, subjects taught by him/her, his/her experience as examiner and head examiner and related information.
  - (ii) The Controller of Examinations or authorised officer shall send the list to the respective Boards of Studies. He shall inform the Boards about the total number of examiners and Head examiners required for examining each paper. Ordinarily, one examiner is needed for every 200 answer-scripts to be examined.

- (iii) The Board of Studies shall prepare panel of names of examiners separately and arrange the names of examiners in alphabetical order. Each panel shall contain at least 50% names in excess of required number.
- (iv) The Vice-Chancellor shall select the required number of examiners out of approved panels, with as much rotation among each category as is practicable, to ensure that that the same set of person are not appointed for an unduly long period.

40. Number of Answer scripts for each examiner:

While deciding upon the number of answer-scripts to be sent to an examiner it shall be kept in view that not more than 200 scripts are ordinarily allotted to one examinee for one examination and that he/she shall examine the same within 10 days.

41. Other papers which are to be sent with the answer-scripts:

The Controller of Examinations or officer authorised by him, shall along with the answer-scripts, send the relevant question papers, the instructions regarding evaluation, the acknowledgement forms signed by examiner and specific directions regarding the last days by which the evaluated answer-scripts must reach to him. Ten days after the despatch of the scripts, the Registrar or authorised officer shall remind all examiners about the dates for returning the same.

42. Discontinuance of examinership on failure to return scripts timely:

If any examiner fails to return the scripts in accordance with the specified dates, the Vice-Chancellor may order discontinuance of sending answer-scripts to him/her in future.

43. Duties of the Examiners:

- (i) As soon as the examiner receives the packets of answer-scripts, he/she shall carefully examine the seals and the packing of the packets so as to satisfy himself/herself that these have not been tampered with.
- (ii) He/she shall acknowledge the receipt of the answer-scripts immediately in the prescribed form. If the number of answer-scripts received by him/her does not tally with the number noted on the top sheet, he/she shall mention it clearly stating the actual shortage or excess and he/she immediately report it to the Controller of Examinations.
- (iii) It shall be the duty of examiner to examine the answer-scripts with care, calmness and precision, justice, equity and fairness, and without any bias, prejudice or emotion, and to maintain the strictest secrecy about the answer-scripts.
- (iv) The examiner shall record the marks scored in each answer on the margin of the answer-scripts and shall then enter the scores answer-wise in the front cover of the answer-scripts and add their total.
- (v) If any candidate is found to have answered more questions than required according to the instructions of the question-paper, the examiner nevertheless evaluate all the answers, but he shall note the words "excess-answer" against the answer which has secured the lowest score, after ensuring that the total of full marks for the remaining questions as printed on the question-paper comes to be equal to the marks for which that paper has been set. He should note the words "excess-answer" also in the proforma on the front-cover.
- (vi) The examiner shall enter the total mark scored by each candidate in the mark-sheet in the triplicate after arranging these in order of roll-numbers.

- (vii) The examiner shall pack and seal the answer-scripts with all due care and precaution and despatch the packets to the proper authority strictly according to the specified date. He/she shall also send the marks-sheet in a separate sealed cover. Failure to keep the specified date shall be treated as a disqualification for future appointment as examiner.
- (viii) It shall be the duty of the examiner to report to the University Authorities any case of answer-script which gives rise to any suspicion of adoption of unfair means.
- (ix) It shall be the duty of the examiner to report any case where directly or indirectly any approach was made to him by any candidate.
- (x) Failure to comply with the provisions of Clause (iii);(vii);(viii) and (ix) above on the part of any examiner shall entail removal of the name of such examiner from the list of examiners.

44. Scrutinizer:

- (i) In order to checking of marks in each script, the Controller of Examinations may appoint as many as many scrutinisers as are required to meet any particular situation. Ordinarily 300 scripts per day shall be scrutinized by one scrutinizer. The total number of scripts to be scrutinized on the whole by one scrutinizer shall not, however, exceed 5,000.
- (ii) The scrutinizer shall, as far as practicable, be appointed in rotation for different papers.

45. Qualification for scrutinizer:

  - (c) that extra answer has not been taken into account;
  - (d) that no answer has been given more marks than allotted to it;
  - (e) that no answer has remained unevaluated;
  - (f) that there has not been any mistake in total;
  - (g) that marks recorded inside the scripts are duly entered in the proforma in the front cover;
  - (h) that marks in the answer-scripts tally with the marks in the mark-sheet.
- It shall be the duty of the scrutinizer to maintain the strictest secrecy about his/her work.

47. Detection of mistake & rectification:

If, as a result of the scrutiny, any mistake is detected by the scrutinizer, it shall be brought to the notice of the Controller of Examinations. On approval of the Controller of Examinations other person if appointed shall exercise re-check and verification, and, if satisfied that there has been a mistake, shall rectify the mistakes by adding, deducing or altering the marks, as the case may be inside the answer-script as well as on the front cover and also in the mark-sheet in triplicate; and shall put his/her signature below the corrections.

48. Failure to attend timely entail penalty:
Failure to attend to duty according to specified time and according to the provisions of this Ordinance shall entail cancellation of the scrutiniser's appointment.
49. Tabulation:
As soon as the scrutiny of evaluated answer-scripts has been completed, the marks shall be tabulated in the prescribed form by the tabulators appointed for the purpose by the Registrar or the Authorised officer. The same tabulators shall not be appointed for the same examination for more than three consecutive years. The tabulators shall do their works independently in separate rooms and shall be responsible for safe custody of the tabulation sheets and mark-sheets during the process of tabulation.
50. Review by Examination Committee:
- (a) As soon as the results have been tabulated, the Examination Committee shall review the general trend of the results and take necessary action.
  - (b) The Examination Committee shall also see whether the examinations in all centres were conducted properly and according to rules and instructions and shall, if deemed necessary, lay down fresh guidelines consistent with the rules and instructions.
51. Withholding of result and confirmation of expulsion:
- (i) The Governing Body shall be entitled to withhold the result of any candidate who is suspected of adopting any unfair means, till the final disposal of the case. If on investigation it is satisfied that the candidate had adopted unfair means, it may debar him/her from appearing in future examination for one or more years.
  - (ii) The Governing Body may also confirm the expulsion of any candidate who has been expelled by the Officer-in-charge during the examination.
  - (iii) The University may withhold with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor the result of any candidate for non clearance of various dues, library books and for want of necessary information required for tabulation, computation of the results.
52. Declaration of result:
On the approval of the proper authorities, the result shall be finally declared. Provided that the Vice-Chancellor may order declaration of results in anticipation of the approval by the proper authorities. The University shall have right to revise the result once declared, if it is so warranted after scrutiny later.
The Controller of Examinations shall strive to declare the results of every examination conducted by him within fifteen days from the last date of the examination for that particular course.
53. Minimum marks for passing:
No candidate shall be declared to have passed any examination unless he/she has obtained the marks as prescribed in the Regulation of the programme concerned.

54. Marks-sheet to be supplied to Candidates:
